Financial Freedom
Tina and Dave Taylor
Military
Military members are used to adapting to new circumstances quickly, but when the Taylors faced three financial challenges within a week, it was clear they needed help. With two children at home, savings seemed impossible, but Dave says he now gets why savings needs to come first. His Coach helped him see how he could accomplish that.
Proven Results:
7% decrease in debt to income ratio

Antwain Johnson
Young Adult
Mr. Johnson understands that getting it right the first time is important for long term financial health. In his early 20’s, he took the challenge to become financially fit, and now recognizes that building savings and establishing a positive credit history are as important as growing career opportunities. With Bank On Hampton Roads, he now has a plan to achieve his long term goals.
Proven Results:
Established credit score

Ina Thomas
Retired
Many people moving from the working world into retirement are faced with reduced income and perhaps some increased costs. Mrs. Thomas has strong family ties and wanted to create opportunities for her children and grandchildren. The balance of providing for personal needs and growing opportunity for the next generation can create tension, but Bank On Hampton Roads gave her the tools she can share with her loved ones.
Proven Results:
3% debt reduction

The Hollimans
Married
Chester and Linda Holliman share that having a financial plan established together as a couple has brought greater strength to their union. They know the benefit of having common goals and working together to see their dreams become reality. They encourage couples to work together toward common goals using Bank On Hampton Roads. The classes and coaching helped the Hollimans create a realistic financial plan. No matter what barrier they may face, they can overcome because they are working as a team.
Proven Results:
Increased savings 70%

Nichelle Johnson
Single Mom
Nichelle is a young mother with two teenage children who was looking to re-establish herself financially. Through Bank On Hampton Roads, she built a financial plan that addresses her current needs, reduces debt and includes regular monthly savings. After completing the challenge, she is now avoiding the debt trap and helping her children establish themselves with a solid education.
Proven Results:
• Income: 13% Increase
• Savings: 58% Increase
• Credit Score: Up 6 points
