Special Services Library Policy

Revised 6/2014

The Bayside & Special Services of the Virginia Beach Public Library, in cooperation with the Library of Congress and the Library and Resource Center of Virginia (DBVI), provides library service to Virginia Beach residents with specific vision and physical disabilities. As a part of the network of cooperating libraries, Bayside Library & Special Services Library administers a free library program of materials circulated to eligible borrowers in Virginia Beach by postage-free mail. Patron eligibility and all service policies must conform to the authorizing acts of Congress.
