

Welcome to Virginia Beach

We're delighted to see you! I'm sure your stay will be filled with incredible moments spent with wonderful family and caring friends. Your time here is sure to provide treasured memories for years to come. To ensure your visit is enjoyed at its fullest, we simply ask that you please respect a few neighborly rules. Otherwise, I wish you and your loved ones a pleasant, relaxing, and inspirational stay as cherished guests of the greatest city in the world!

Sincerely,

Kevin Kemp

Zoning Administrator, City of Virginia Beach

- The use of any type of Fireworks is prohibited. [City code section 12-43.2]
- Creating open fires is prohibited. [City code section 12-5]
- Creating noise/sound that can be heard inside any adjoining residence is prohibited. [City code section 23-69 through 23-71]
- All trash shall be placed in automated refuse receptacle where provided. [City code sections 31-26, 31-27 and 31-28]
- Having more than three people per bedroom in the home after 11:00 PM is prohibited. [Zoning Ordinance Section 241.2]
- Events having greater than 50 people are prohibited unless a Special Events Permit is obtained prior to the occasion. [Zoning Ordinance Section 241.2]

Police Department - Non-Emergency - call 385-5000

Emergency - Dial 911