

ORD-3603

1 AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND CITY CODE SECTION
2 2-3 REGARDING APPOINTMENTS TO BOARDS
3 AND COMMISSIONS
4

5 Sec. 2-3. - Limitation on terms of members of boards and commissions; application
6 for appointment of such members.
7

8 (a) Any person appointed to a board or commission of the city shall be limited to:

- 9 (1) Eight (8) consecutive one-year terms.
 - 10 (2) Four (4) consecutive two-year terms.
 - 11 (3) Three (3) consecutive three-year terms.
 - 12 (4) Two (2) consecutive four-year terms.
 - 13 (5) Two (2) consecutive five-year terms.
- 14

15 The council shall limit its selections to those persons who have submitted applications
16 on forms approved by the council and on file with the city clerk. Each member of the 17 council may review the applications fifteen (15) days prior to the appointment.
18

19 No person may be nominated for appointment to an initial term unless that nominee's
20 potential appointment to the board or commission was previously discussed by the City
21 Council during a prior Council meeting. Such discussion may occur during the open or 22 closed portion of the prior meeting, in accordance with the Virginia Freedom of 23 Information Act.
24

25 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) above, city council may, by an 26 affirmative vote of a majority of all of the councilmembers, reappoint a person to an
27 additional term beyond that permitted by subsection (a) when, by virtue of the unique 28 qualifications of the position or other extenuating circumstances, doing so would 29 serve the best interests of the city.
30

31 (c) Term limits shall not apply to appointees of the board of building code appeals. The 32 members of each division of the board of building code appeals shall serve at the 33 pleasure of city council.

Adopted by the Council of the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia, on the 1st day of October, 2019.
