

Brian van Eerden

Director of the Virginia Pinelands Program

The Nature Conservancy (TNC) for nearly 20 years

- Brian van Eerden is the Director of The Nature Conservancy's Virginia Pinelands Program.
- In that role he manages the Conservancy's land acquisition and forest management projects across southeastern Virginia.
- He received his Master's degree in Botany from the University of Georgia and his undergraduate degree in Plant Science from Pennsylvania State University.