Animal Control Advisory Board

Meetings Enhance Communication

The Animal Control Advisory Board has been established to enhance its ability to communicate with, and better serve, its community regarding animal concerns. The Board serves as a way for diverse community members to be advocates for Animal Control.

The Board is comprised of citizens who represent both the community, animal welfare groups and external veterinary community.

Community Cooperation

One of the most valuable assets available to Animal Control, in both enforcement and shelter functions, is cooperation from our community.

Meetings provide a formalized process that facilitates citizen and community cooperation with Virginia Beach Animal Control.

Citizen Advocates ... How Can You Help?

- Attend Advisory Board meetings
- Join a sub-committee
- Address topics of interest/concerns with Board members
- Volunteer at the shelter
- Adopt a shelter animal
- Be an advocate on the part of Animal Control
- Report animal cruelty

The Virginia Beach Animal Control Unit Advisory Board ("advisory board") shall serve as an advisory board to the Virginia Beach Police Department to help sustain and advocate for the operation of the City's adoption-friendly Animal Care & Adoption Center ("adoption center"), as well as the Animal Control Unit's enforcement efforts, so as to best serve the community.

Please refer to Sec. 5-103, 5-104
and 5-105 of the Virginia Beach
City Code to view entire ordinance.
