City of Virginia Beach Citizens' Police Academy

- The Virginia Beach Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit supervisor or their designee will review all Citizens' Police Academy applications for acceptance into the class.
- For successful completion, academy participants are asked to miss no more than three classes.
- Academy participants are expected to dress in proper attire (slacks and dress shirt, blouse, dress, casual jeans in good repair, etc. NO worn or tattered jeans, shorts or t-shirts, or any garment with vulgarity, profanity, or sexual innuendo).
- Photographs may be taken throughout the academy and may be used for promotional purposes by the department, as well as posted on the Citizens' Police Academy Alumni Association website.
- Academy participants are asked to be courteous and respectful of all academy instructors and fellow attendees.
- Any actions/display of behavior that may be viewed as a disruption to the class may result in the Citizens' Police Academy Coordinator excusing the academy participant from the current session and/or any future Citizens' Police Academy classes.
- Each participant will complete a Ride-Along Application and sign a Release of Information Authorization Form (PD-151). A criminal records check will be conducted on academy participants as a part of the Citizens' Police Academy.

In consideration of the Virginia Beach Police Department granting permission to enter in or upon any premises or vehicles which are under its actual care or constructive or passive control, I hereby waive all claims to damage or loss to my person or property which may be caused by any act, or failure to act, of the Virginia Beach Police Department, its officers, agents or employees. I assume the risk of all dangerous conditions in, upon or about the premises or vehicles and waive any and all notice of existence of such conditions.
